

L.O) I can read a pictogram

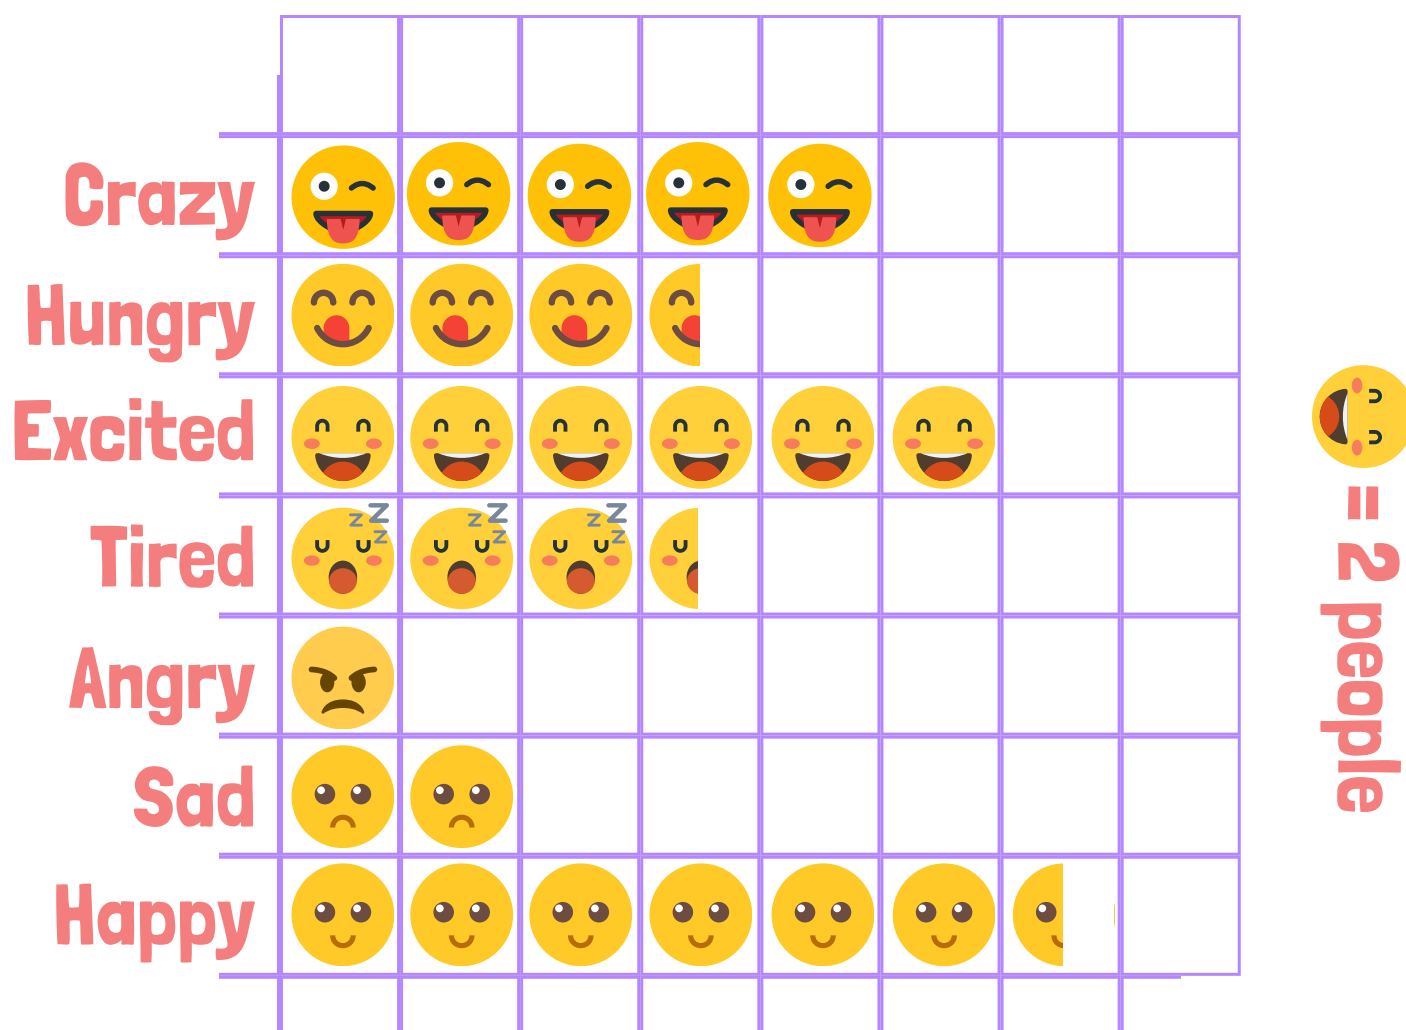

1. How many children felt happy? _____
2. How many children felt tired? _____
3. How many children felt sad? _____
4. How many more children felt crazy than sad? _____
5. How many children are there in the class? _____
6. How many children felt hangry? (hungry and angry!!) _____
7. How many fewer children feel sad than tired? _____

Challenge

Use the blank grid at the back of the pack to create your own pictogram. It can be about anything you like!

L.O) I can read a pictogram

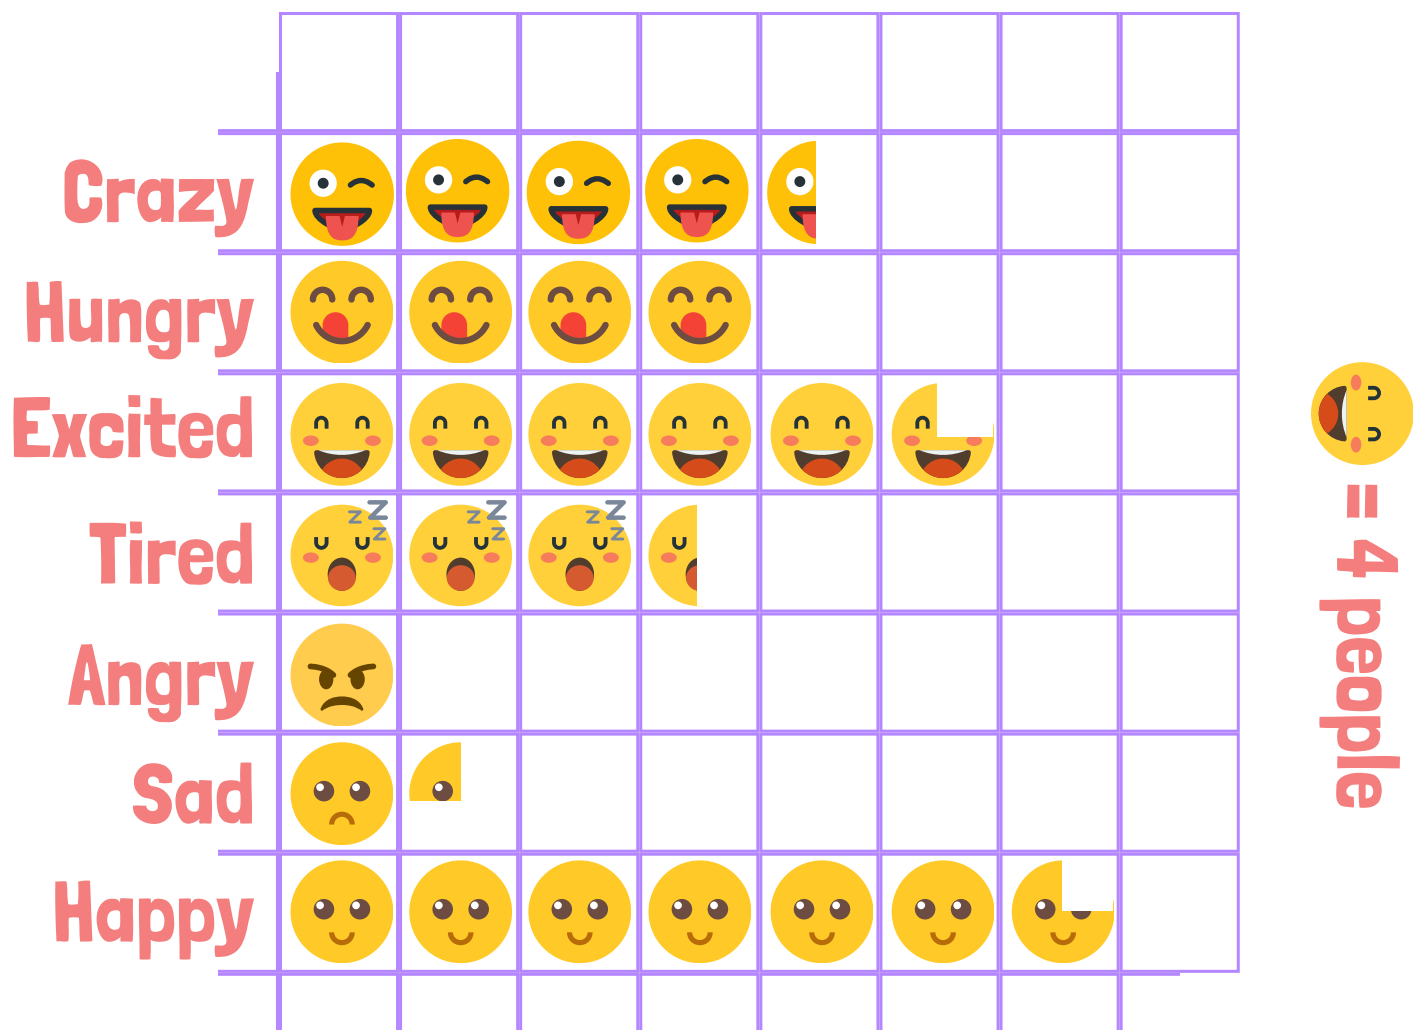

1. How many children felt happy? _____
2. How many children felt tired? _____
3. How many children felt sad? _____
4. How many more children felt crazy than sad? _____
5. How many children are there in the school? _____
6. How many children felt hungry? (hungry and angry!!) _____
7. How many fewer children feel sad than tired? _____

Challenge

Use the blank grid at the back of the pack to create your own pictogram. It can be about anything you like!

L.O) I can read a pictogram

1. How many children felt happy? _____
2. How many children felt tired? _____
3. How many children felt sad? _____
4. How many more children felt crazy than sad? _____
5. How many children are there in the school? _____
6. How many children felt hungry? (hungry and angry!!) _____
7. How many fewer children feel sad than tired? _____

Challenge

Use the blank grid at the back of the pack to create your own pictogram. It can be about anything you like!

L.O) I can draw a pictogram

CHALLENGE

Create your own pictogram! Use the one from your activity to help you.

||

Can you write and answer some questions about your pictogram?

